

Monday

9:00 AM

Registration, Coffee and Refreshments

9:45 AM

Welcome

10:00 AM

Opening Panel

Session 1: CI and Theory

Chair: Ine van Zeeland (imec-SMIT)

11:00 AM

From contextual integrity to contextual flexibility? (full paper)

Armen Khatchatourov (Université Gustave Eiffel)

11:15 AM

A Minimally Just Framework for Digital Dignity: Unifying Contextual Integrity and the Capabilities Approach (full paper)

Kat Roemmich (University of Michigan), Florian Schaub (University of Michigan) and Kirsten Martin (University of Notre Dame)

11:30 AM

Data Intermediaries and Emerging Data Economies: Exploring the Need for Evolving the CI Framework

Michiel Fierens (ULeuven Centre for IT & IP Law), August Bourgeois (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) and Ruben D'Hauwers (Vrije Universiteit Brussel)

11:45 AM

Contextual Vulnerability: Bridging Contextual Integrity with Power Theories (extended abstract)

Gianclaudio Malgieri (Leiden University)

11:55 AM

Discussion (10 mins)

12:10 PM

Lunch

Session 2: CI and Sociotechnical lens

Chair: Ido Sivan-Sevilla (University of Maryland)

1:45 PM

Synthetic Data and Privacy: generating reality, silencing controversy (extended abstract)

Paula Helm (University of Amsterdam), Benjamin Lipp (Technical University Denmark) and Roser Puja (University College London)

2:00 PM

Intracommunity Online Harms as Contextual Integrity in LGBTQ+ Communities

Kyle Beadle (University College London), Mark Warner (University College London) and Marie Vasek (University College London)

2:15 PM

Assessing contextual integrity through a socio-technological ethical approach in the context of responsible AI in public education

Marco Houben (UHasselt), Jo Pierson (UHasselt) and Rob Heyman (VUB)

2:30 PM	Discussion (10 mins)
	Setup buffer
CI Community Feedback session # 1
Chair: August Bourgeus Vrije Universiteit Brussel)
2:45 PM	Integration of Contextual Human Rights-Based Approach and Data Autonomy Kyra Abrams (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)
	The Legal Effects of Risk to Rights and Freedoms in the EU: The Case of the GDPR Tatiana Duarte (KU Leuven)
	Putting OSINT in Context: how to regulate privacy in public Amir Cahane (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
3:00 PM	Feedback (10 mins)
3:10 PM	Break (20 min)
Session 3: CI and Regulation reforms
Chair: Pierre-Luc Déziel (Unviversité Laval)
3:30 PM	Fostering a Market For Responsible Data Practices (use case) Noah Apthorpe (Colgate University), Eleanor Birrell (Pomona College), Travis Breaux (Carnegie Mellon University), Kirsten Martin (Notre Dame University), Rishab Nithyanand (University of Iowa), Sarah Radway (Harvard University), Yan Shvartzshnaider and Maximiliane Windl (LMU Munich)
3:45 PM	Bridging the transatlantic divide: combining the inductive contextual privacy approach with the deductive data protection approach (extended abstract) Max von Grafenstein (Einstein Center Digital Future, Alexander von Humboldt (Institute for Internet and Society)
4:00 PM	Discussion (10 mins)
	Setup buffer
CI Community Feedback session #2
Chair: Elisa Orrù (Max Planck Institute CSL)
4:15 PM	Privacy as Demarcation. In Search for a Common Concept from Private Sphere to Data Protection Nora Becker (TU Dortmund University)
4:20 PM	Position paper work in progress Dataprotection in chains Marie-José Bonthuis (University Medical Center Groningen)
4:25 PM	Discussion (10 mins)

4:35 PM	Panel: Reflections of the day
5:00 PM	Predinner break
7:00 PM	Dinner